

Muriel Christonai ~ The Deva Diva

Sonic Alchemist for the Soul

Muriel Christonai, known as the Deva Diva, is a New Zealand-based artist and Sonic Alchemist. Her music bridges the ethereal and the embodied, weaving cinematic electronics with piano, harp, and sacred instruments to create live and recorded experiences that scale from intimate contemplative spaces to large-scale festival and orchestral environments. Her work offers audiences a felt experience of coherence - music that lands in the body as much as the heart.

With a background in postgraduate healing music studies and over thirty years of meditation practice, Muriel's compositions go beyond melody - they are intentional tools for emotional integration and nervous system regulation. Having shared her transmissions on international stages alongside authors such as Neale Donald Walsch, she is currently entering a breakthrough year. 2026 sees the release of a new album produced by Fraser Browne (Paper Cranes), alongside the Soul Places documentary by New Zealand cinematographer Mark Lapwood. Her work remains a dedicated invitation to the listener: to dive into the deep waters of the Soul and return to a state of coherence.

- International UK & European Tour alongside Neale Donald Walsch (Author of Conversations with God).
- Featured Performer for Hay House (London) alongside Dr. Wayne Dyer.
- Master of Arts (Post-Graduate) in Healing Music & 30-year Meditation Practitioner.
